

NOTICE OF APPOINTEMENT

Edmundston, June 2nd, 2021 - Ms. Marie-Eve Castonguay, Executive Director of the Northwest Regional Service Commission (CSRNO), is pleased to announce the appointment of Mr. Richard LeBel, as Solid Waste Service Commission Manager. Originally from Edmundston, Mr. LeBel, through his profession as a civil engineering technologist, and several other related training acquired over the years, including a Gold Seal in project management, will be able to contribute to the expertise of the solid waste sector team.

With 25 years of experience in human resources management, operations planning, setting up and monitoring large budgets, there is no doubt that his contribution will be significant within the management team of the CSRNO.

Mr. LeBel has an impressive network of contacts stretching from the East Coast to the West Coast, including the United States. His experience in research and development, and a keen interest in the environment, leave no doubt that Mr. LeBel will be able to provide advice to the Board of Directors of the CSRNO on strategic initiatives and planning. It will also be natural for him to continue to maintain and develop his relationships with our various partners from the public and private sectors as well as the various levels of government.

Under the supervision of the Executive Director of the CSRNO, Ms. Marie-Eve Castonguay, Mr. LeBel has been in office since May 25, 2021. The entire CSRNO team welcomes him and wishes him great success in his new functions.

The CSRNO is a system of local governance in New Brunswick. It acts as an essential partner of regional collaboration in order to advance the optimal development of its territory. The CSRNO is an agent of change that paves the way for regional collaborative projects in an approach focused on education, promotion and awareness of regional capacities by offering common services to its members.

– 30 –

For additional information or interviews, please contact:

Marie-Eve Castonguay
Executive Director of the CSRNO me.castonguay@csrno.ca / (506) 735-2564